

Type: TAPESTRY

Origin: FRANCE

Circa: 18 Century

Size/Feet & Inches: 5'0" x 8'8"

Size/Meters: 1.52 x 2.64

Item Number: 6521

A French Felletin pastoral tapestry panel from the first half of the 18th century, depicting a seated youth playing the bagpipes and courting a seated young woman, flanked by two sheep, within an extensive landscape with a tree to the right-hand side, flower sprays in the foreground and a castle in the background. Enclosed within a ribbon-tied entwined floral trailing border with ribbons at the angles and within beige and brown outer slips. Wool with silk inlay.