

Type: TAPESTRY

Origin: FLEMISH

Circa: 18 Century

Size/Feet & Inches: 7'7" x 10'1"

Size/Meters: 2.31 x 3.07

Item Number: 8512

A Flemish pastoral hunting tapestry from the 18th century, depicting two noblemen seeking their catch between the large trees and verdant mounds of an idyllic forest setting, with a herd in the distance by the gateway to the village. Enclosed by a scrolling acanthus leaf and garland border. Wool with silk inlay.